Jubaile Abila, Groth Law Firm, S.C., Brookfield, WI, for Petitioner.

Jennifer A. Shah, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for Respondent.

RULING ON ENTITLEMENT<sup>1</sup>

On August 17, 2022, Aaron Lindh filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.<sup>2</sup> (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that he suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (SIRVA) after receiving an influenza (flu) vaccine on September 23, 2020. Petition at 1. Petitioner further alleges that the vaccination was administered within the United States, he experienced symptoms in excess of six months, and he has not received any compensation in the form of an award or settlement or filed a civil action for his vaccine-related injuries. Petition at 1, 6-7. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On December 14, 2023, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent's Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Respondent concluded that "[P]etitioner's alleged injury is consistent with SIRVA as defined by the Vaccine Injury Table." Specifically, Respondent determined that [P]etitioner had no history of pain, inflammation, or dysfunction of his right shoulder prior to vaccination; pain occurred within 48 hours after receipt of an intramuscular vaccination; pain was limited to the shoulder in which the vaccine was administered; and no other condition or abnormality has been identified to explain [P]etitioner's shoulder pain." Id. at 5. Respondent further agrees that Petitioner suffered the residual effects of his condition for more than six months. Id.

In view of Respondent's position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
